Selected e-mail account delivers new e-mail messages to the following location:

Mailbox - Aaron S. Smith\Inbox

in data file C:\Documents and Settings\A5Smith\...\Outlook\outlook2.ost
3. Click the More Settings... button.
4. Select the Advanced tab and click the Add... button.

5. Type in the name of the shared mailbox and click OK. In this example, we are adding a shared mailbox named iTunesU. You will enter the name of the mailbox that you want to access. Click OK again to close the Exchange server window.
6. You will be returned to the More Settings window, click OK.

7. Click Next and then click Finish

8. Click the Finish button.

9. Click the Close button to close the Account Settings window.
10. After a short period of time the shared mailbox will appear in the mail folder list on the left side.

11. If the shared mailbox does not show up properly, quit Outlook 2007 and restart your computer (or log out of Windows and log back in).
Sending a message as the shared account

You will be able to send and receive mail messages using the shared mailbox as you would your own mail messages. However, when creating a brand new message, be sure to specify the shared mailbox account as the sender on the From: line:

1. Click the New toolbar button to create a new message.
2. Select the Options tab and select the Show From button.
3. In the From: field of the new message, type in the name of shared mailbox and press tab.
4. Proceed as normal.
Replies
To have replies to the email be directed to an alternate email address:

1) Open a new email
2) Click on the options tab
3) Click on “Direct Replies To:
4) Either type in an alternate email address for replies to be redirected to, or click on the “Select Names” button and choose the account you want from the address book.
Removing a shared mailbox

If you have previously connected to shared mailbox and no longer want to see it:

1. In Outlook 2007, select the Tools menu and then Email Accounts...
2. Select your Exchange account in the list and click the Change... button.
3. Click the More Settings... button.
4. Select the Advanced tab.
5. Select the shared mailbox in the list.
6. Click the Remove button and click OK.
