The Outlook Interface

1. Title Bar

On the left-hand side, the title bar displays the title of the document you're working on and the name of the program. To the far right of the title bar, you have buttons to maximize, minimize, restore, or close the window.

2. Menu Bar

Click on any of those items (File, Edit, View, Go, Tools, Actions, or Help) to view a list of commands.

3. Type a Question

If you need help, type a question in this box, press Enter, and answers will appear in a new window.

4. Toolbars

This is the Standard toolbar. Outlook has three toolbars: Standard, Web, and Advanced.

5. Navigation Pane

This pane is the easiest way to get around in Outlook. It contains links to various folders so that you can easily view your contacts, mail, calendar appointments, and more.

6. Inbox

Displays the contents of the currently selected folder.

7. Preview/Reading Pane

View the contents of the selected item here.

8. To-Do Bar

New feature in Outlook 2007, summarizes upcoming tasks and appointments.

9. Status Bar

Displays item count for the current folder.

Two Interfaces....

You will see two interfaces when using Outlook 2007. When viewing items, you will see the traditional Office interface with menus and toolbars. When creating items, you will see the new Office interface with ribbons and chunks.
Introducing The New Interface

The new interface is made up of ribbons and chunks. Click a tab to see the related commands. For example, if we wanted to insert an item into our message, we would click the Insert ribbon.

Each ribbon is collected of different chunks, with related items.

Some chunks will have a small button in their bottom right hand corner. Clicking this button will open a dialogue box with more features related to the chunk. In this example, clicking the small arrow opens the Font dialogue.

To minimize the ribbon and just display the tabs, click the arrow next to the Quick Access toolbar (circled in red in the image on the right) and click Minimize the Ribbon. Now, each ribbon will expand when you click the tab. When you click back in the editing window, the ribbon will minimize again.

Inserting an Attachment

1) Open a new mail message.
2) Click the paperclip icon on the standard toolbar, or click the Insert ribbon and click Attach File.
3) Pick the file you want to attach and click Insert.

Attachment Tips

- Check the size of your file. If it is too large, some people might not want to receive it, or it might not send at all.
- Make sure your file doesn’t have any viruses in it.
- Title your attachment properly.
- Try to send files that can be opened by common programs.
- Outlook will block certain kinds of files that can be harmful, like executable (.exe) files.
- Right-click an attached file to modify it.

Creating an Out of Office Auto Reply

1. Click the Tools Menu
2. Select Out of Office Assistant
3. Here you can create your desired setting for date/time as well as the message.

What's New in Microsoft Office Outlook 2007?

The core of Outlook hasn’t changed, but you will see many helpful new features added to Outlook 2007. They include:

- A new To-Do Bar that summarizes upcoming meetings and tasks
- Use of the new Office 2007 interface when working with Outlook items
- Support for Really Simple Syndication (also known as RSS) feeds, enabling you to keep on top of news and other important information without leaving Outlook
- Use of Windows Instant Search, making finding information easier than ever
- Better ability to publish and share calendars
- New Attachment Previewer that makes it easier and safer to view attached files
- New Phishing Filter that helps protect you from false e-mails
